On 10/13/64, informant advised that he received a subpoena on 10/12/64 dated 10/7/64 ordering him to appear at Miami on 10/20/64 as a witness in the FELIX ANTHONY ALDERISIO, et al case. He advised that he is certain that if he appears in Federal Court in Miami and is seen by ALDERISIO, his life as well as his family's will be in jeopardy.

On 10/14/64, he advised that he called Mr. KENNEY, Departmental Attorney in Miami on the morning of 10/14/64 and pleaded with him, mostly on the basis that his absence will result in the ruination of his business; not because of his fear because he thought that would open up questions. KENNEY told him to be in Miami on 10/20/64.

It is noted that Miami airtel to the Bureau dated 10/9/64, captioned FELIX ANTHONY ALDERISIO, et al, advised that the trial date has been reset for the week of 10/26/64 and will probably not commence before 10/29/64.

Informant has stated that he intends to appear at Miami on 10/20/64 as ordered by the subpoena.

Miami is requested to determine if informant should appear on 10/20/64 as set out in the subpoena or possibly at a later date. If there is any possibility that informant need not appear in view of the fact that he feels his life is in jeopardy, Miami should advise the Los Angeles Office.
