Re Bureau telephone calls from Bureau Supervisor
 TOM McANDREWS, 10/25/64 and 10/26/64.

Referenced call reflected inquiry made of the Bureau concerning the allegation made by E. BENNETT WILLIAMS, Washington, D. C. attorney, to the effect that FBI Agents in Miami were surveilling and harassing WILLIAMS and his client, ALDERISIO, on the night of 10/24/64.

For the information of the Bureau, by communication captioned "NY 2151-C," dated 10/13/64, the New York Office advised the Miami Division as follows:

"On 10/6/64, NY 2151-C overheard that there was to be some type of a meeting of members of the organized Italian criminal element, which meeting will be held in Randazzo's (PH) Restaurant, Miami Beach or Miami, Florida. It was the informant's understanding that the restaurant could be identified by a large sign affixed to the building. This meeting was to be either held in this place on the 24th or during the week of 10/24/64. The informant did not know how many people were to be at this meeting, but that it allegedly is an important meeting of SANTOS TRAFFICANTE and other individuals closely aligned with him."
