SECRETNO FOREIGN DISSEM*BACKGROUND USE ONLY

1. Information concerning Louis JUBEL and his anti-CASTRO activities during the period 14 April 1962 through 19 June 1962 was furnished by another office of this Agency.

2. Subject told a representative of this Agency that he was planning a trip to Washington, D.C., on Saturday, 14 April 1962, to meet with Encelid MUJAL, the head of the Liberacion Nacional de Cuba, an anti-CASTRO group, and with a former South American ambassador to the United States, Aleh BELT, not further identified. Subject said he expected to receive a list of the individuals involved in the Liberacion Nacional de Cuba at this meeting.

3. In the event that CASTRO is overthrown, JUBEL said he will represent the Liberacion Nacional de Cuba in public and industrial relations matters, and will try to get back all property lost by United States firms in Cuba. He said he had been in touch with Special Agent (fnu) YEAGER of the New York office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who told him to contact the Department of Justice concerning the above mentioned matters.

4. Subject said he has means available to smuggle arms into Cuba, but would prefer assistance from the United States Government for this type of activity. However, if no interest is shown by the United States Government, he will attempt to interest another pro-western power.

5. JUBEL said he works for Celebrity, Inc., a plastics factory located at 2590 Park Ave., Bronx, New York, where he supervises receiving and warehousing.

6. On 17 April 1962 JUBEL reported by a telephone call that he planned to leave for Miami, Florida, on 21 April 1962 to meet with the leaders of the Liberacion Nacional de Cuba.

*Fla.
D7C On 20 April 1962, JUBEL arrived in Miami and reportedly met with the following personalities of the Cuban exile colony in a Miami Beach hotel: Dr. Julio GARCERAN de Vall, Eusebio MUJAL, Colonel Guillermo DRIGGS, Pedro DIAZ Velez, and Felipe VIDAL Santiago. The trip was reportedly in response to an invitation from Eusebio MUJAL. During the meeting, which lasted several hours, Subject indicated that he had been an officer in the United States Armed Forces on duty in Iraq and other Near East countries. He discussed, in detail, plans for the liberation of Cuba, and promised to bring them to the attention of his alleged numerous contacts among high officials of the Department of State and the Department of Defense.

8. Eusebio MUJAL reportedly wrote to Dr. Julio GARCERAN on 12 June 1962, and requested that GARCERAN come to Washington, D. C., for a conference with JUBEL on 16 June 1962. JUBEL had asked GARCERAN to appoint him as a colonel in the Cuban Army of Liberation and had also requested that he be provided with credentials from the Cuban government in exile. JUBEL is quoted as saying that the plan agreed upon by his "friends" is that 25,000 men will rebel in the six provinces of Cuba with arms which his "friends" will supply. A force of 10,000 men will be utilized; 5,000 for an attack on Habana, 2,000 as reserves, and 3,000 as standby reserves. These forces will be supported by jet aircraft purchased in Europe. Funds have already been allocated in his "friends" budget for the purchase of the jet aircraft.

9. In a telephone conversation with a representative of this Agency on 19 June 1962, JUBEL said he was in the process of drawing up a battle plan for the invasion of Cuba.

10. During a meeting with JUBEL on 19 June 1962 with a representative of this Agency, he referred to Dr. GARCERAN as the constitutional president of Cuba. He said that GARCERAN had admitted to him that his (JUBEL's) plan for the invasion of Cuba was superior to that of the Pentagon. He said he was to receive an identification card with the rank of a colonel and a letter stating that he is a personal representative of GARCERAN.

11. JUBEL said he had met with Frank NELSON, who allegedly is the liaison contact between GARCERAN and the Pentagon. NELSON was described as being 5 feet nine inches tall, weighing 180 pounds, 45 years of age, wearing glasses, and having a tattoo on his left arm. The meeting with NELSON took place at 240 Central Park South, Apartment 6-N, New York City.

12. JUBEL said he had advised GARCERAN against becoming involved in a scheme to hire 7,500 Venezuelan mercenaries for use against the Castro government, and that GARCERAN had taken his advice.

13. JUBEL requested a permit from this Agency to purchase 200 rifles and 30 submachine guns. He was told that we do not engage in business of that nature, and he withdrew the request.

14. This Agency has no identifiable information on Encelio MUJAL and on Aleh BELT.

15. On 23 September 1957 a usually reliable source, who received the information from an untested source, reported that a (fnu) DRIGGS, a Cuban Naval captain from the Mariel Academy, was arrested by the Batista regime following an abortive revolt by almost the entire navy garrison at Cienfuegos, Cuba, during early September 1957.

16. Louis JUBEL, Eusebio MUJAL, Dr. Julio GARCERAN, Pedro DIAZ Lanz, and Felipe VIDAL Santiago have been the subjects of previous correspondence.

17. Any additional information which may be received by this Agency concerning Subject and his activities will be promptly forwarded to addressees. This Agency will appreciate receipt of any information addressees may develop on Subject and his activities.
