RE: SAMUEL M. GIANCANA, aka

Re Mexico City letter dated 8/17/67.

On 8/21/67, MEX 42 and MEX 196, Mexico City surveillance informants who have furnished reliable information in the past, advised they had conducted extensive surveillances in the Cuernavaca area over the past weekend in an effort to locate subject or BERGIT CLARK. Efforts were concentrated at the Rancho Tetela subdivision and the golf club but have been unproductive to date.

The following information was received on 8/18/67 from MEX 170 who has furnished reliable information in the past:

Source confirmed by pretext interview that telephone number 2-61-75 is located in the residence at Netzahualcoyotl 133 in Cuernavaca. The current Cuernavaca telephone directory lists the number in the name of DAWSON BRAY at this address. The current Anglo American Directory for Mexico does not list this individual for the State of Morelos.

Pretext inquiry at the house determined that it is currently vacant and under repair. It is near the cathedral in the center of town, part of a block of reconstructed colonial houses in town house fashion. By Cuernavaca standards it would be moderate in price. Workmen advised that Mr. BRAY returned to the United States and that the present owner is a Mrs. ALLEN who is also currently in the United States, address unknown.

distance from this house, in most cases five or six blocks. In fact, there is no residence in the vicinity which commands any sort of view of this property. Q W

In back of this property is a deep canyon, and across this canyon is a small section of much more moderately priced homes, some of which could command a view of some of the windows of the house at Nubes 2 with optical aid. Because of the high walls, there is no way to observe the grounds or garden. Q W

A Datsun sedan with Morelos license RJ 267 was observed parked in front of Nubes 2. Q W

It was determined that this license is registered to MARIO COLOSSIA GARCIA, Morelos 904-9 Interior, Cuernavaca. It appears that this may be a tradesman or repairman, and attempts will be made to determine his background with an eye toward possible approach to him. Q W

It is noted that Chicago airtel 8/8/67 refers to source in GIANCANA household. It should be pointed out that Mexico City has no source in the GIANCANA household. Further, it is believed that any attempt to directly develop such a source would be counterproductive and contrary to instructions concerning extreme discretion and no open inquiries and that the Bureau's interest in subject's location should be in no way revealed. (C) W

The information from the housekeeper was given to an Inspector of Mexican Immigration on a pretext inquiry and apparently was false, since no confirmation yet received. Q W

The MEXICO CITY DAILY BULLETIN, a local throw-away publication, for 8/12/67 contained a column, "Cut and Print It," by HELEN GOULD, datelined Las Vegas and referring to the purchase of the Desert Inn by HOWARD HUGHES. She reports as follows: Q

Phylis McGuire is booked into the DI with the McGuire Sisters act (probably a booking made before the HH regime) and boyfriend Sam Giancanno comes right along. It's rumored he even bought "His" and "Her" houses for them, so it looks like they'll be around Vegas, and Sam - who was the
