CG 6502-C* further advised on 3/10/62, that VOGEL and LADON entered into a discussion concerning the 58 karat diamond bracelet that they had previously discussed. ALEX asked him about the bracelet and VOGEL told him not to buy it. VOGEL said that he had at appraised and it was only worth from $7,500 to $10,000. ALEX asked VOGEL why didn't he take it to Trabert and Hoeffler for an appraisal. VOGEL told ALEX that he did not have to take it there and that the place he took it to could duplicate it, the work and all, for about $10,000. ALEX asked VOGEL to let him look at it again before he gave it back but VOGEL replied, "I'm not going to give it back, he ain't in town". VOGEL stated, "A guy like IRVING, he breaks it up, he buys it and breaks it up, understand, and you can't believe him. He's a liar". It is believed that the IRVING referred to by VOGEL is IRVING HORNSTEIN, Chicago top jewel thief. During this discussion LADON interrupted and mentioned the name IRVING BURNETT but ALEX stated, "No not him." It is believed that the [redacted] mentioned by LADON is actually [redacted] a PCI of the Chicago Office.

During the discussion concerning the bracelet ALEX mentioned "that Jew in the Fontainebleau, is he got beautiful stuff. He's got merchandise that is merchandise". It is possible that the person referred to by ALEX above is MAXIE EDER, a well known jewel fence and who was known to be at the Fontainebleau Hotel during the week of 3/5 through 9/62, when ALEX was apparently in Miami. In discussing IRVING, EDDIE VOGEL also mentioned that "IRVING is not around and that nobody is around."

This informant further advised that ALEX mentioned to SUZANNE FUEGER that a man who resides on the same floor as he does in the apartment was observed by him at the Fontainebleau Hotel. SUZANNE replied that, "He must have left after you (ALEX) did because I saw him in the elevator the day after you left."

was smart she wouldn't have talked to them. She should tell them once and for all. Don't come up to my place anymore. You go to my attorney. You have my attorney's address. You go up to see him. If he tells me I should talk to you, I will talk to you, now please leave here." SUZANNE stated that "She must have done some talking because she just couldn't sit there and ignore them." ALEX said, "They told her that she has been out with VOGEL. They know everything."

CG 6502-C* advised that on 3/11/62 ALEX was talking to an unknown individual on the phone from his apartment and mentioned that he would take HENRY's car. Informant could furnish no further information concerning this conversation. It is believed that the HENRY referred to by ALEX is HENRY SUSK.

On 3/12/62, CG 6502-C* advised that ALEX gave SUZANNE FUEGER the names of two doctors to call to make an appointment to have a thorough examination. The two names which he gave to FUEGER were those of Dr. GILBERT MARQUARDT and Dr. EDMOND FOLEY. is a PCI of the Chicago Office. ALEX told FUEGER that he didn't want to become involved in arranging for the examination because if she was not satisfied with the findings of Dr. MARQUARDT she could then go to Dr. FOLEY. He stated that he did not want it to be known that he sent her to Dr. MARQUARDT if SUZANNE later decided to go to Dr. FOLEY.

Informant advised that on 3/13/62, SUZANNE FUEGER was in the apartment of ALEX in the morning and they engaged in a short conversation concerning where they should go for dinner that evening and if they should accompany EDDIE and PEGGY to eat. It is believed that EDDIE and PEGGY referred to by them is EDDIE VOGEL and PEGGY STRAK.

Informant advised on 3/14/62 that SUZANNE FUEGER and GUS ALEX entered into a discussion concerning SUZANNE's mother coming to visit them in Chicago. It is to be noted that SUZANNE's mother presently resides in
