ReBuairtel dated 7/3/62 concerning confidential coverage at Pedicone's Restaurant, Lyons, Illinois, and the consideration of considering ROCKY INFELICE, AMERICO DIPIETO and JAMES TORELLO of top hoodlum coverage by this Office. (U)

A preliminary survey of Pedicone's conducted under suitable pretext on 7/9/62 reveals that there is a serious problem of security therein concerning the presence of maintenance employees at the establishment, and the fact that access into the pertinent area of confidential coverage is yet to be resolved. The confidential source furnishing access into the restaurant section of Pedicone's is JOHN CURTIN, manager of the City Plumbing and Heating Company, Chicago, which is in the process of installing new heating and plumbing in certain sections of the restaurant. He has advised that the installation date for the heating has been moved up to about two weeks. Reconsideration will be given at that time for confidential coverage at that establishment, bearing in mind full security. (U)

Regarding INFELICE, DIPIETO and TORELLO, it is not believed that these three are of sufficient stature
