CG 92-350

show you the list. Here's what I got last time. 28 sergeants, $980 dollars, this is last time, I got $4,330.

MARCY: That's last time.

CONLIN: No but remember I beefed and you know and you give me the money extra. Remember? I said I'm not gonna take thirty because they're hollerin' like a (obs), recall that? Here's what I got last time, I marked it down myself. I got $4,330 from you last time, look at this. And there's two in the office, two assistants.

The above reference to "two assistants" is believed to be to Assistant States Attorneys, two of which are assigned permanently to First District Headquarters.

The total of $4,330 which is furnished to police officials is believed to be that taken from strip joint operators and any gambling operations that are operating within the frame-work of the First District. It is pointed out that CG 6443-C has furnished information in the past to the effect that strip joints donate $300 per month for police protection, which amount coming from seven joints now in operation would fall far short from the $4,330 total.

MARCY: Yeah, I give you that.

CONLIN: You only give me one?

MARCY: I gave you two.

CONLIN: No, no, I got the list right here.

MARCY: Here it is, I give you one for a C note and one for a quarter.

CONLIN: Yeah that's the assistant, there's two in there.

MARCY: I only got one for last time.

CONLIN: Here's the list.

MARCY: Here's my list. I only took care of two guys in the office.
