Re Tampa letter to Director dated 1/29/64.

Subject is the delegate of an anti-CASTRO group known as Ejercito Libertador (Liberation Army) (Bufile 105-110055) and has been furnishing information concerning anti-CASTRO activities in the Tampa, Florida area. Case was originally opened on subject in an effort to develop him as a security informant. However, investigations and interviews with subject indicate that he does not meet the criteria for a PSI at this time. Subject is being made a security source of information; and if information furnished is determined to be reliable, Bureau permission will be requested to direct his activities as a PSI.

Investigation of subject's background has been completed and information disseminated on Ejercito Libertador.
