REC-104

Remyairtel, 7/8/60 concerning the change in location of the gambling casino in New Kensington, Pa., operated by the MANNARINO gang.

Press reports in the Tri State area disclose Pittsburgh National Top Hoodlum SAM MANNARINO was reindicted by a Federal Grand Jury, NDI, Chicago, 7/14/60 in connection with the case involving the theft and interstate transportation of stolen Canadian Government Bonds. News articles indicate the new indictment was based on information furnished by the government of Switzerland where some of the bonds were negotiated.

The PCI who is close to the activities of the MANNARINO gambling syndicate on 7/15/60 advised that there is very little activity at the MANNARINO gambling casino since it moved to the basement of the Garibaldi Building on 6/16-17/60. Informant is of the opinion that the inactivity is due to MANNARINO's involvement in the bond case plus the fact that several members of his organization, including his son-in-law, are presently awaiting the results of their appeal with the Third Circuit Court, Philadelphia, in connection with the gun running case.

No new cases opened or referred to other agencies.
