ReBuairtel to San Juan 5/6/63; Buairtel to San Juan, 5/22/63; and San Juan airtel to Bureau 5/24/63.

Enclosed herewith to the Bureau are the original and six copies of a letterhead memorandum, setting forth results of contacts with informants and sources concerning an alleged attempt by subject to "shake down" hotel owners in San Juan, P.R., and one copy enclosed to the New York Office.

Inasmuch as San Juan files contain nothing to substantiate this allegation, and no corroborating information was received from informants and other sources, no further investigation is being conducted by the San Juan Office.

The first confidential source in the enclosed letterhead memorandum is PCI SARAH TORRES-PERALTA, a labor attorney, who formerly represented Local 610, and is strongly opposed to the Teamsters Union.

The second confidential source in the enclosed letterhead memorandum is Lt. RAFAEL ALVAREZ-JIMENEZ, Field Operations, Police of Puerto Rico, Hato Rey, P. R., who controls an informant who is a former public relations officer for Teamsters Union Local 901, Santurce, P. R., and who continues to maintain close daily contact with CHAVEZ and others in Local 901.
