Boston is to be constantly alert, particularly through contact with BS 837-C*, for the mode of travel to be used by Patriarca and Tancico with regard to their trip to New York City, probably on 9/23/63. Every effort, in keeping with complete security of the above source, is to be made by Boston to be in a position to turn Patriarca over to New York Agents, in order that his place of abode in New York City can be established and plans thereafter made by the New York Office for coverage of his activities in New York during ensuing week.

With regard to discussion concerning "making" one Nick or Chick a member of the "family" on Wednesday, 9/23/63, "in case they want to make peace Thursday," it is possible that Patriarca is referring to Nick Bianco, a Brooklyn, New York, hoodlum who is known to be associated with the Gallo brothers, and who recently visited Patriarca in an attempt to have Patriarca intercede in the Gallo-Profaci warfare. New York should consider Bianco a definite possibility as the individual to be "made" on 9/23/63, and appropriate investigation should be conducted by New York, particularly with selected informants, such as NY 3104-C, in a position to be aware of Bianco's activities, and to assist you in attempted coverage of the ceremony in which this new member of La Cosa Nostra is to be "made." It is noted that Patriarca indicated that this is to take place at 4:00 p.m. on 9/23/63 in New York at "the Roma." New York is to conduct logical inquiry in an effort to identify the location referred to by Patriarca as "the Roma."
