Re Newark airtel, 9/24/64, Bureau letter to New York, 9/29/64 and New York airtel, 10/13/64.

On 10/23/64, NY 4609 PC advised that he recently learned that VINCENT GENEROSA, aka Jimmy; De Mino, is the most powerful and least known underworld character in the New Rochelle, New York area. He stated that he has three sons, SALVATORE, who is a member of the New Rochelle City Planning Board, and two other sons, one named GUS and the other, whom the informant believes to be named MICKEY. He also has two daughters, but does not know their identities and believes them to be married. The informant also advised that VINCENT GENEROSA currently operates out of a stationery store known as the Lafayette Stationery, located at the corner of Second Street and Lafayette Street, New Rochelle, New York.

Informant advised that he considers GENEROSA to be very powerful, inasmuch as he, informant, recently was in contact with SABITO MILO and advised MILO that he might contact GENEROSA to straighten out a "problem" that he, the informant, had in New Rochelle. The informant advised that MILO indicated to him that if he contacted GENEROSA, he would be contacting an individual more powerful than he, MILO, is.

The informant advised that he would be alert for any additional information concerning GENEROSA also known as DE MINO.
