SUBJECT: JOHN ROSELLI, aka
AR

On 4/26/65 GEORGE HOPKINS, Manager, Glen Towers Apartments, Los Angeles, advised that on Thursday, 4/22/65, when ROSELLI and his girl friend left the apartment, he thought they would be gone for several days; however, he said ROSELLI returned to the apartment alone the same evening and the girl is no longer staying with ROSELLI. HOPKINS said that the girl's name is NANCY ZARR (Ph.). The Los Angeles Office, through usual sources, has not been able to identify this girl. The Las Vegas Office has been requested to endeavor to identify her.

HOPKINS advised that on 4/26/65, shortly after 1:00 PM, ROSELLI left the apartment alone in his car and was carrying extra clothes with him when he left. On the way out he told HOPKINS that if the management wanted to get into his apartment for some reason while he was gone they could get a key from his attorney, EMANUEL ROTHMAN. HOPKINS said that ROSELLI has had his own locks put on the door to his apartment and the apartment manager does not have a key. HOPKINS asked ROSELLI if he was going on a trip. ROSELLI replied that he was going to Palm Springs for a couple of days.

LV 10-C furnished information that ROSELLI checked into the Desert Inn Hotel on 4/26/65 and indicated an intent to remain until 5/4/65. The Las Vegas Office advised that the Tournament of Champions (Golf Tournament) is being held at the Desert Inn Country Club from 4/29 through 5/4/65 and this may account for ROSELLI's trip to Las Vegas at this time.

On 4/29/65 GEORGE HOPKINS, supra, advised that the apartment was holding mail for ROSELLI and two pieces of mail bore the return addresses, respectively, of "P.O. Box 472, Place d'Armes, Montreal, Canada," and "Jubilee Iron Corporation, 630 Dorchester Blvd., W., Montreal, Canada."

Mr. HOPKINS further advised that ROSELLI is frequently called by Mr. and/or Mrs. CROSBY. It is recalled a couple of weeks ago ROSELLI was observed having dinner with LINDSEY CROSBY and two women.

On 4/27/65 CHARLES BUONORA, 1442 Westwood Boulevard, West Los Angeles, who operates Buonora Art School at this address, advised that KATHLEEN ROSSELLI, 1333 South Beverly Glen Boulevard, West Los Angeles, telephone 474-4526, was a student at his school in November, 1964. She paid $10 for one month and attended classes about twice during November. BUONORA said that KATHLEEN did not refer to herself as Mrs. ROSSELLI or furnish any information about ROSELLI, except to state that they travel a lot to Las Vegas, San Francisco (and elsewhere) and she would probably have to miss some classes. BUONORA advised that he knows of JOHN ROSSELLI through reading the book "Green Felt Jungle" and he assumed that KATHLEEN's husband or boy friend was JOHN ROSSELLI. KATHLEEN listed her hobbies as golfing and water skiing and started classes to learn to paint and draw. BUONORA said she was an intelligent, attractive girl. After she quit attending classes, he called her residence once or twice and could not reach her and has not seen her since some time in November, 1964.

LV 10-C furnished information on 4/26/65 that RUBY KOLOD made reservations for a Mr. and Mrs. FLETCHER JONES at the Desert Inn Hotel at the request of JOHN ROSELLI. JONES indicated that he would stay for seven nights. Mr. and Mrs. JONES are listed as "top priority" by the hotel and it was indicated they were in Las Vegas for the Tournament of Champions. It is probable that JONES is the automobile dealer from Los Angeles. Information was recently received by the Los Angeles Office that FLETCHER JONES, the automobile dealer, is an ardent golf fan.
