Previous investigation has reflected that the MIRR is an anti-CASTRO revolutionary organization of Cuban exiles under the leadership of Dr. ORLANDO BOSCH AVILA.

Prior to November, 1964, this organization was involved in several raids and attempted raids against targets in Cuba, however, on November 19, 1964, the MIRR announced an alleged raid on the night of November 18, 1964, which was never confirmed by the CASTRO government, and no confirmation was ever obtained this raid took place.

Again, on January 17, 1965, another alleged raid, against the Niagara Sugar Mill in Pinar del Rio Province, was announced by the MIRR on January 18, 1965. Again, no confirmation was ever received of this raid, however, the CASTRO government, after a delay of several days, made an announcement which purported to confirm the raid, although the Cuban announcement contained facts which were inconsistent with the MIRR announcement.

central at Bahia Honda, Pinar del Rio Province, Cuba, on the night of February 12, 1965 by an airplane from a base "somewhere in the Caribbean." The February 14, 1965 issue of the MIAMI HERALD carried an article entitled "Cuban Sugar Mill Bombed, Strafed, Exile Group Says." This article reflected that a twin engine plane bombed and strafed a sugar mill at Bahia Honda, after which it returned to a "secret base somewhere in the Caribbean." The raid took place during the early morning hours.

On February 14, 1965, MM T-1, a former Cuban official who has good contacts among Cuban exiles in the Miami area, advised that an individual who identified himself as JOSE GUTIERREZ, public relations official of the MIRR, telephoned Miami Radio Station WMET on February 13, 1965 and asked why that station had not broadcast news of the raid as had other stations. When the station official replied that WMET had received no confirmation of the alleged raid, GUTIERREZ asserted that in the future this official would be sorry for not helping the revolution. Subsequently, ORLANDO BOSCH apologized to Station WMET, but at the same time he claimed that news of the raid was true.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

MM T-2 and MM T-3, both of whom are acquainted with members of the MIRR and who have been in recent contact with these individuals, advised they possess no information indicating that the MIRR had staged this raid.

On February 15, 1965, MM T-1 advised he had been listening to the Cuban radio for any confirmation
