ReNYairtel, 1/23/63.

NY 3778-C* advised that there was no activity from 1/18/63, to 1/20/63, inclusive.

On 1/21/63, the informant furnished the following information.

EXTREME CARE AND CAUTION SHOULD BE USED CONCERNING INFORMATION FURNISHED BY THIS INFORMANT, AND, IF THE INFORMATION IS USED IN ANY MANNER, IT SHOULD BE PARAPHRASED SO AS NOT TO COMPROMISE THIS VALUABLE INFORMANT.

The informant advised that CONNIE NOONAN, President of Local 1730, International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), was talking to an ED (LNU) on the telephone about an individual who had been served with a summons for four violations on his truck.

and when the strike is settled, they sign a contract that has 'utility'. The five barns that sign the first contract should get a chance to change their contract to put in 'utility'."

The discussion continued, and was generally inaudible because of the three individuals talking at once, but JULIUS was heard to remark, "560 drivers - TONY PRO" and JULIUS apparently is referring to the fact that some of the barns or companies have employees who are members of Local 560 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. It is noted that TONY PRO, true name TONY PROVENZANO, is an official in Local 560, IBT.

JULIUS stated, "RED MIKE gave you Local 641 men." and CONNIE agreed, making an inaudible remark, and then stated, "JIMMY wants (inaudible)."

An unknown number of individuals joined the conversation, and all went into the outer office. NOONAN and FUREY returned to NOONAN's office, and spoke in low tones. NOONAN remarked, "I'm in trouble now. Bad trouble (inaudible). Yeah, but he's different." The remainder of the conversation is inaudible; however, mention is made of two shop stewards, and, later on in the conversation, NOONAN quoted an unknown individual, "I can't afford a strike, I'll sign anything." The informant was of the opinion that this conversation was a continuation of the previous conversation concerning the present negotiations.

With respect to the question of "utility", it is noted that this question has been a major point with Local 1730 of the ILA. NY 1716-C has previously explained that the members of Local 1730 generally work under the so-called checker system, where certain individuals are authorized to work the Hi-Lo Machines, and other individuals are authorized to work as checkers. Under the "utility" system, all individuals could be utilized as the situation warranted, either as Hi-Lo operators, or as checkers.

NY 92-2568

On 1/25/63, NY 1716-C advised that a meeting was held on 1/23/63, at Local 1730, ILA, Union Hall, and this was a meeting of the wage-scale committee. The informant advised only two shop stewards at the meeting were holding out against "utility". THOMAS W. "TEDDY" GLEASON, Treasurer of Local 1730, talked to these two shop stewards, and told them they could not stop the wheels of progress, and that if these two shop stewards continue to block "utility", he, GLEASON, would send them back to JIMMY. Informant advised GLEASON apparently was referring to the fact that JIMMY "BLUE EYES" (VINCENT ALO) had been helpful in placing both of these shop stewards in their union positions.

Informant also stated that CONNIE NOONAN told one of the shop stewards that he was getting out of line, and that even though he, NOONAN, was a "general" in the organization, he had to take orders too, and that the orders were "to get utility".

The informant pointed out that this is the first time GLEASON had committed himself for "utility", and informant believes that outside pressure is being put on GLEASON, as GLEASON is the real head of Local 1730.

THE ABOVE INFORMATION FURNISHED BY NY 1716-C IS KNOWN ONLY TO THE INFORMANT, NOONAN, GLEASON AND A FOURTH PARTY. THEREFORE, EXTREME CARE SHOULD BE TAKEN IN ANY TYPE OF DISSEMINATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE FURNISHED TO ANY OUTSIDE AGENCY, WITHOUT CONSULTING THE CASE AGENT HANDLING NY 1716-C.

The informant advised that there was no activity on 2/6/63.

Informant advised on 2/7/63, that CONNIE NOONAN was in telephonic contact with JOSEPH ADELIZZI, and the conversation apparently centered around the fact that the

It is noted that NY 1449-C has advised that JOE SOCKS LANZA put up money to reopen HELEN DUNN's restaurant on 56th St. and that CHAMP SEGAL is fronting for LANZA. This same informant advised that MEYER LANSKY has a "piece" of this restaurant.

The discussion continued concerning various business enterprises and AUSTIN FUREY asked "What do you think of the joint at Columbus and 74th". NOONAN replied that he hates the neighborhood, that it's a tough neighborhood but that the place isn't a bad one. The discussion continued for sometime concerning the pros and cons of investing in a business and all four individuals then left NOONAN's office.

NOONAN re-entered his office and is joined by PAT LNU. PAT is a shop steward at an unnamed company and he has a grievance against the company. Apparently an individual named COLANDRO (PH), a member of the union, was fired for refusing to go to the manager's office without the shop steward being present. In addition this man was arrested for trespassing when he returned after being fired and refused to leave the premises of the company. A discussion of the problems that Local 1730 is having with this company ensues and NOONAN remarks that "Banjo's mob--these guys got shares in the company don't give a damn about the union". The informant advised Banjo was not further identified. It is noted however, that on 12/3/62, NY 3778-C* advised that the name BANJO was mentioned and NOONAN identified him as Jimmy Blue Eyes (Vincent Alo) brother-in-law. Part of the ensuing conversation was unintelligible and finally an unknown individual asked NOONAN "Do you want to talk with DANNY TROPETTA (PH)". NOONAN's reply is inaudible with the exception that he states he would like to call him later. NOONAN then asked, "Who's the other guy", and is advised that it is JERRY DIONE (PH).
