Enclosed for the Bureau is one copy each of 302's on CARLOS MARCELLO and Dr. WARREN HEBERT. Enclosed for New York are eight copies of the above 302's which may be pertinent to this investigation.

NO 1456-PC advised SA ROGER E. MAXWELL on September 23, 1966, that CARLOS MARCELLO has no respect for ANTHONY CAROLLA or FRANK GAGLIANO. Informant could not understand why these two individuals would be in New York City with MARCELLO. Informant believes that JOSEPH MARCELLO, of all the MARCELLO brothers, is closest to CARLOS MARCELLO. Informant further stated that he believes that CARLOS MARCELLO was ordered to New York as MARCELLO does not like New York City.

NO 1435-C-TE advised SA JACK EVANS MEHL on September 27, 1966, that CARLOS MARCELLO has been joking about his arrest in New York City. MARCELLO stated in the presence of the informant that his reasons for going to New York were strictly business and in connection with some of MARCELLO's legitimate business enterprises. MARCELLO stated just prior to his departure, he received an invitation from MICHELLE MIRANDA inviting CARLOS and JOSEPH MARCELLO to a luncheon at the La Stella Restaurant. MARCELLO further stated that this was strictly a social luncheon for pleasure only.

NO 1390-C-TE advised SA JOSEPH G. PEGGS on November 21, 1966, that JAMES CAMPO, whom the informant described as a prominent New Orleans hoodlum, stated "Look at all the hell that was raised in New York over purchasing on that RECILE's hotel." At the time of this remark, CAMPO was discussing CARLOS MARCELLO's September 22, 1966 arrest in New York City.

New Orleans PCI [ ] advised SA BENJAMIN Y. CANNY, San Juan Division, that he had determined that the recent meeting of leading hoodlums in New York was called because of a loan manipulation in New Orleans involving CARLOS MARCELLO and SANTO TRAFFICANTE. Informant stated that the loan had been granted to one LOUIS ROUPIER, who fronts for CARLOS MARCELLO. MARCELLO bought back into this deal for 60% of the loan plus a vendor's fee of $84,000.00 to be paid to one WAYNE HAUSER. Informant stated that some of this money was to go to TRAFFICANTE and TRAFFICANTE was not paid. Informant believes the meeting in New York was to straighten out these finances. Informant also stated that one SAM RECILE, a real estate dealer in New Orleans, had recently gone bankrupt because MARCELLO had backed out of his operation. LA

PCI [ ] further stated that he believes that all the juke boxes in the New Orleans area belong to SAM GIANCANA of Chicago, Illinois, and that GIANCANA is extremely angry at CARLOS MARCELLO because GIANCANA's count in this venture is short. LA
