was a public place and that he could not control who entered the club and that the only thing this date had cost him was a cup of coffee. He further stated that FRIEDMAN and ROSSELLI "wanted to do some business" but stated he would conduct no business with either individual and further that he did not desire to be seen talking with them. He stated he knew ROSSELLI's reputation and FRIEDMAN's reputation as "figuring with a sharp pencil," and he would have nothing to do with either of them.

The Las Vegas Office advised that DEAN WILLIAMS is an old-time gambler from the Fort Worth-Midland, Texas, area who has been in Las Vegas for the past five years and that he, in all probability, will be associated with BINION in the Horseshoe Club when BINION takes this club over from EDWARD LEVINSON. The Las Vegas Office furnished no information concerning the identity of the two unknown individuals with FRIEDMAN and ROSSELLI.

On February 18, 1964, [redacted] PCI, advised that she had several dinner dates with STANLEY PARKER during the first part of February. She said PARKER arrived in Los Angeles on Monday, February 3, 1964, and stayed at the Beverly Hills Hotel and was still here on February 12, 1964, but she believes he left shortly after this date. He was accompanied by a man named ZUCKERMAN, who was from Chicago. [redacted] stated that PARKER was using ROSSELLI's car and that when she was riding in this car with PARKER, she told PARKER to be sure and wipe all of her fingerprints off the car because she did not want to be implicated with ROSSELLI in anything. [redacted] did not know why PARKER and ZUCKERMAN were in Los Angeles. She recalled that PARKER and ZUCKERMAN were in Las Vegas the week end of February 8, 1964.

OTHER 4

[redacted] said that on the evening of February 3, 1964, she, STANLEY PARKER, ZUCKERMAN, MAURICE H. FRIEDMAN, and a dark-haired girl friend, JACK BARENFELD, and a couple of other persons were at the Casa de Oro Restaurant for dinner. MAURICE H. FRIEDMAN and his girl friend left early stating FRIEDMAN had to catch a plane for New York, and the girl friend was going to drive him to the airport. FRIEDMAN also said that ROSSELLI had left earlier for New York. The
