ANGELO BRUNO, aka
AR
OO: Phila.

ReBuairtel to Phila., cc Miami, 9/24/63.

Reairtel instructs Phila. to request Miami to handle interview of BERNARD BUCKY ALLEN and to furnish Miami with suitable background data. Miami has sufficient background data, noting that all copies of reports re ANGELO BRUNO have been forwarded that Division due to his extensive activities in the Miami Division's territory.

Of importance in utilizing polygraph technique to interview ALLEN was an attempt to have ALLEN admit that he was in a position to testify to information which he had previously furnished. ALLEN has taken the position during the previous interviews that he believed certain information, such as investments in the Dominican Republic by BEN GOLOB and others was in part BRUNO's money. He has, however, always claimed that he had no concrete information in this regard and only believed these situations to be true.

Phila., for example, knows that BEN GOLOB is very talkative in regard to his relationship with ANGELO BRUNO when conversing with individuals he trusts, such as PH 614-C-TE. It is felt he would take this same position and furnish considerable information of value to the FBI in his conversations with BERNARD ALLEN.

Phila. has always been at a disadvantage when interviewing ALLEN inasmuch as he was always preoccupied with his employment as Manager of World of Mirth Shows and in a travel
