W., WDC, who discontinued use of the number on 5/19/58, when they moved to a new location, 20th and E Streets, N. W., WDC.

On 7/29/58, HERBERT FOREMAN, Director, Associated General Contractors of America, Inc., advised SA RICHARD B. KELLOGG that NORMAN ROTHMAN is not listed as a member of that organization and not known to him.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORT

SECRET

DATE: 7/8/58

VIRGIL J. BAILEY, Investigator, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Dallas, Texas, advised he conducted investigation in the early part of 1958 concerning ENRIQUE ERNESTO PUGIBET who was held in the Dallas County Jail for several weeks until about May, 1958. BAILEY stated PUGIBET, while registered at one of the three large hotels in Dallas passed about $1,000 worth of worthless checks to the hotel where he was registered and then departed for New York City. He was thereafter arrested at New York in connection with a worthless check passed by him there. Inasmuch as PUGIBET had not actually cashed the worthless checks he was trying to pass in New York City, PUGIBET was released to the Sheriff's Office in Dallas for prosecution for a similar charge on worthless checks because the case at Dallas was stronger for prosecution.

BAILEY stated after PUGIBET was returned to Dallas by local authorities the Immigration and Naturalization Service placed a detainer on PUGIBET in order that his office could conduct an investigation to determine if PUGIBET was illegally in the United States and subject to deportation. BAILEY interviewed PUGIBET at the County Jail. PUGIBET claimed to be a cattle buyer for some individual in the Dominican Republic, name or firm not recalled, and claimed to have been in the United States on several short visits. PUGIBET was said by BAILEY to be a citizen of Mexico although was born in France and presently resides in the Dominican Republic. PUGIBET, while in Dallas, registered at the hotel where he passed the worthless checks, had an account in a Dallas bank possibly the First National Bank. He is not certain but believes it was on that bank that PUGIBET drew the worthless checks for which he was prosecuted. He has no knowledge that PUGIBET has passed any checks in Dallas or elsewhere on out of state banks. He said he believed during his investigation that PUGIBET was merely a "hot check artist," who has made several quick trips into the United States for the purpose of passing worthless checks and was caught before he could get out of the country after passing the worthless checks in Dallas. He stated he does not know a great deal about PUGIBET but developed the opinion from interviewing PUGIBET that he was merely an ordinary criminal who was committing his offenses in more than one country. He stated he has no information that would indicate PUGIBET has engaged in activities for or in behalf of the Dominican Republic unless his cattle buying activities was for state owned institutions of that country.

BAILEY stated PUGIBET received a suspended sentence on the worthless check charge at Dallas and during his stay at Dallas County Jail was given an Immigration hearing for the purpose of determining if he was subject for deportation. Following that hearing he was ordered deported and was sent from Dallas to McAllen, Texas, for deportation. He is not certain but believes PUGIBET was deported to the Dominican Republic, although it could have been to Mexico.

BAILEY stated the Immigration and Naturalization Service file on PUGIBET reflecting his investigation was forwarded to the San Antonio Office of that agency from Dallas on May 28, 1958.

BAILEY stated he recalls that PUGIBET mentioned the name of NORMAN ROTHMAN as a friend. BAILEY stated ROTHMAN never made any appearance in an effort to assist PUGIBET and ROTHMAN was never seen or interviewed by BAILEY. BAILEY does not know what association there has been between PUGIBET and ROTHMAN.
