Information received from Direction de la Surveillance du Territoire (DST), French Domestic Counterespionage Service, classified "Confidential" disclosed MANDRAKE is unknown at the above-mentioned hotel. DST also had no information regarding "Madwoman". (c)

NY 4047-S* advised on 4/2/68, SUSAN FRANK in a conversation with subject discussed an article appearing in the NY Post, apparently the article, entitled "Peking Jails 'Renegade' Westerners", which appeared in the April 1, 1968, edition of the paper.

SUSAN FRANK stated it concerned a friend subject had met in London. The friend allegedly was small, but had a tall wife; they were supposedly arrested for espionage. Subject apparently was surprised stating "that's a little bit of a block buster" - "that almost might be worth a trip". They discussed the possibility of a trip in the near future or awaiting future developments prior to any decision.

Mrs. EVA MARIE RUIZ-CATARINEU, Air France (AF) on 7/22/68, advised SA GEORGE J. WIGGINS subject's wife has reservations for AF 044, departing NY, 8/1/68, for Paris, AF 822 departing Paris, 8/8/68, for London and Pan American Airways, Flight 001 departing London, 8/20/68, for NY.

The agents who observed subject and his wife at the office of the "China Daily News" on 7/7/68, were ROLAND G. KEARNS, ROBERT L. PENCE and EDWIN YEE.

When observed on that date subject gave no indication of being in other than good health. NY 4047-S* has furnished no indication subject is in other than good health.

Inasmuch as SUSAN FRANK, wife of subject, is subject of pending NYO case and information developed concerning subject generally arises as a result of investigation of the activities of his wife, NYO is placing case in a closed status to avoid duplication.

Information concerning subject will be channeled to subject's case file and all significant data pertaining to subject will be furnished the Bureau.
