ADMINISTRATIVE

This report has been delayed due to the preoccupation of the preparing Special Agent with important investigative aspects of this and related cases. However, pertinent information has been furnished to the Bureau and interested offices as received by appropriate communications.

Information in this report of possible value to the Internal Revenue Service has been furnished orally to Special Agent JACK SCHWARTZ, Intelligence Division, Internal Revenue Service, Pittsburgh, who is conducting the investigation of subject for his Service.

By letter 1/3/62, Pittsburgh Office advised the Bureau of the fact that all informants and sources familiar with any phases of the activities of the MANNARINOS had agreed that the IRS raid in New Kensington, Pa., on 8/24/61, the Westmoreland County raid of 9/17/61, the FGJ inquiry in Pittsburgh, and the election of reform candidates for the New Kensington city administration had all combined to make an information vacuum in that city, due to drastically curtailed gambling and the resultant inactivity of the MANNARINOS and their associates-employees.
