ADMINISTRATIVE

On April 5, 1961, SA HAROLD L. WILLIAMS, Pittsburgh Sound-Trained Agent, and SA THOMAS G. FORSYTH, III surveilled the cottage of GABRIEL MANNARINO located on Old Leechburg Road, R. D. No. 3, Leechburg, Pa., with a view toward ascertaining the feasibility of a technical installation. All construction appeared to be complete and nobody was observed in the neighborhood. Because of the rural location, terrain, limited service facilities and proximity of neighbors friendly toward MANNARINO, it was apparent that such an installation would have numerous technical, mechanical and security problems and would be very difficult. Special Agents handling these matters will continue to be alert for possibilities for technical coverage for this and other logical locations.

The spot fisur on GABRIEL MANNARINO's Surfside, Florida, house on March 14, 1961, was conducted by SA C. GRAHAM HURST.

The spot fisurs at MANNARINO's Surfside, Florida, house on April 7, 1961, and April 19, 1961, were conducted by SA ROBERT K. LEWIS.

The spot fisurs at GABRIEL MANNARINO's cottage near Leechburg, Pa., on March 23, 1961, and April 19, 1961, were conducted by SA FORSYTH.

The pretext interview on May 2, 1961, with LEE KUHNS, caretaker at MANNARINO's cottage, was conducted by SAs PAUL D. O'BRIEN and ROBERT EMMET GRANT, who pretended to be advertising company photographers. The same SAs observed GABRIEL MANNARINO at the Bonfire Restaurant, Leechburg, on May 2, 1961.
