Re: Ilando CAPOLINO; Guido CAPOLINO;
Samuel (Sam) MANNARINO.

In our correspondence of 23-Nov-65, para. 7, mention is made that the CAPOLINOs had issued a cheque for $2,200.00, drawn on a Canadian bank in Toronto.

2. Subsequent enquiries now indicate that the CAPOLINOs have an account with the Royal Bank of Canada, Montreal Branch, Place Ville Marie, Montreal, P.Q., rather than with a Bank in Toronto.

3. Enquiries conducted in Montreal indicate that this bank has a customer's account under name of CAPOLINO, however, bank officials would not divulge the number of this account nor the first name of the person who has same. It was learned, however, that one of the CAPOLINOs had opened this account with the Royal Bank of Canada prior to July 1965, with a deposit of $5,406.28. Bank officials were reluctant to supply any additional details with regard to this account, without a court order. Therefore, under the circumstances the matter was not pursued further.

4. Confidential information received from another source indicates that the account in question may be under the name of Ilando CAPOLINO and that there have been a large number of cheques drawn to this account. The last cheque known to have been issued by Ilando CAPOLINO was on 10-Dec-65 in the amount of $49.49, payable to Northern Mountain Airlines Limited in B.C. Enquiries indicate that this was cheque #505 and that the CAPOLINOs have a Current Account with the Royal Bank in Montreal.
