BUFFALINI had a product, an insulated cream pitcher, which he was trying to sell. She said MICHAEL DRAKE had some connection with this firm, but she does not exactly know what it was. She said that DRAKE is a character actor about 50 years of age who is married to a woman in her early 20s and who is about the same age as MIKE DRAKE's son, ALLEN DRAKE.

PALEY said that BORODKIN was a "terrible liar" and would tell things as fact which were absolutely false. She recalled that he was going for a short time with a girl named DOROTHY ELLIS and on one occasion ELLIS came to the office and BORODKIN told her definitely that he had made arrangements for a screen test for her at some studio on the following day and ELLIS was quite excited. However, after she left, BORODKIN admitted that he had made no such appointment and did not have the contacts to make such an appointment.

On August 18, 1965, PALEY said that she heard that BORODKIN was presently in the San Diego area trying to sell the automatic shoe shine machine.

Information was previously reported in this investigation that on April 29, 1965, there were letters for ROSSELLI at his apartment which bore the return addresses P. O. Box 472 Place D'Arms, Montreal, Canada, and Jubilee Iron Corporation, 630 Dorchester Boulevard, West Montreal, Canada.

On June 30, 1965, LA T-226 furnished the following information:

St. James Street, West. The firm has held the Box since 1931 and has a reputable standing in Montreal financial circles.

The Jubilee Iron Corporation, 630 Dorchester Boulevard, West, Montreal, is controlled by Canadian Javelin Ltd. Jubilee was incorporated in Quebec in 1957 under the Chairmanship of JOHN C. DOYLE, who also controls the Javelin firm. Both Jubilee and Javelin maintain executive offices at 680 - Fifth Avenue, New York City. DOYLE has gained wide-spread notoriety in stock circles over the past 15 years and was very recently convicted in the Eastern U.S.A. as a result of unlawful share sales in the U.S.A.

It was learned through a reliable source that ROSSELLI purchased 2,000 shares of Jubilee on April 27, 1965, at $2.75 per share, all of which were later sold at a price ranging from $4.10 to $4.75. L. J. Forget and Company, Ltd., handled this purchase for ROSSELLI, after the latter had been vouched for by a GEORGE PALLAY of 345 - 8th Avenue, New York City. PALLAY is known to be a close friend of JOHN C. DOYLE. PALLAY is also known to maintain a residence at the Friar's Club in Los Angeles, however, as of June 10, 1965, he was known to be residing at the Desert Inn in Las Vegas.

The April purchase of stock by ROSSELLI is the only occasion he has had dealings with L. J. Forget and Company, Ltd.

Information is set out below under Bank Accounts that on May 10, 1965, a check in the amount of $5,173.93 payable to the L. J. Forget and Company was drawn on the "Emanuel Rothman, trustee" account at the Union Bank, which account has been used for financial activities of ROSSELLI.

There was a notation on the check "2,000 shares Jubilee Iron Corporation per inv. of 4/27/65." This check was deposited to the account of the payee of the Toronto Dominion Bank, Toronto, Canada. The same account reflects that on June 11, 1965, a deposit was made to this account of $7,867.44 which consisted of three Canadian items totalling this amount from L. J. Forget and Company, Ltd., Montreal, Canada.

Sale of Ice Cube Machines

Information has been previously reported in this investigation that ROSSELLI had informed FRANZ BREITLING, owner of the Ajax West Coast Corporation that he would contact AL PARVIN who owned the Dohrman Hotel Supply Company to endeavor to persuade PARVIN to purchase more refrigeration equipment from Ajax West Coast Corporation.
