Re SD letter to Bureau, 11/6/68.

The San Diego Division has previously advised that SD 1064-C-TE would arrive in St. Louis on 12/5/68, to contact St. Louis LCN boss ANTHONY GIARDANO re obtaining GIARDANO's assistance in obtaining a Teamster loan. St. Louis Agents discreetly observed ANTHONY GIARDANO meet informant as he arrived at the St. Louis Lambert Airport and subsequently drive to ANTHONY GIARDANO's residence in a St. Louis suburb.

On 12/7/68, SL 1344-C-TE advised SA ROBERT L. BENDER that "the outfit" was entertaining an important out-of-town figure who was also a member of the LCN and for whom LCN boss TONY GIARDANO had laid out the "red carpet." SL 1344-C-TE stated that this individual's first name is FRANK, last name unknown to informant, and that whoever he is he must be important to GIARDANO and the "outfit" as they are wining and dining him. FRANK (LNU) is being entertained personally by GIARDANO and on the night of 12/6/68, GIARDANO, JAMES GIAMMANCO, JOHN VITALE and RALPH CALECA were with FRANK at Produce Market in St. Louis, where they had a meeting. It is noted that all of the above individuals has previously been identified as being members of the St. Louis "family."

Informant further stated that FRANK (LNU) has been in town for several days but was unable to state where FRANK (LNU) was staying.

Informant stated that GIARDANO and his associates are particularly concerned with SA BENDER who they indicate they would like to get out of the way as he is always "noseying around" and being referred to as a "hound."

SL 1344-C-TE states that FRANK (LNU) is described as a white male American, approximately 60-64 years of age, and appears to be well known to GIARDANO.

The above information is being provided to San Diego to assist in their interviews with informant regarding St. Louis activities and persons involved with the St. Louis "family" and his return to San Diego.
