Colorado. He knows him as a partner with ~~JIM DI MARIA~~ in the Tami-ami Bar in Huntington Park, California. He has had very little contact with ANTIISTA and was introduced to him as a member by the former deceased Boss FRANK DESIMONE.

To the informant's knowledge his partner JIM DI MARIA is not an LCN member.

The informant recalled that in early July, 1965, he received orders from his Capo JOE ADAMO of San Diego to proceed to the Tami-ami Bar and meet with member ANTIISTA. At that time he had visiting with him, in San Diego, LCN Capo ~~FRANK LA PORTE~~ of Chicago and LA PORTE's brother-in-law.

File Calif

Upon arrival at the Tami-ami Bar he learned from ANTIISTA that he was to take informant to a winery in Cucamonga, California, where FRANK DESIMONE was waiting for him. Upon orders from DESIMONE he had to leave LA PORTE and his brother-in-law waiting in the bar while ANTIISTA took the informant to Cucamonga. He held a meeting with DESIMONE, JOE DIPONITTO and NICK LICATA at which time DESIMONE gave him a murder contract on ANDY LOCCOCO owner of the Cockatoo Inn in Hawthorne, California. DESIMONE claimed LOCCOCO had "turned copper". The informant upon reflecting back believes DESIMONE attempted unsuccessfully to extort money from LOCCOCO and for this reason wanted him killed.

He stated that with DESIMONE now dead, no one in the family to his knowledge has any intention of going through with that contract.

He recalled ANTIISTA as a nervous man, was always looking over his shoulder, and worried about being surveilled. He could not furnish any pertinent background knowledge on him at this time.
