SUBJECT: United States v. Bonanno, et al.

Pursuant to our request we have received from you summaries of interviews and statements taken by the Bureau from the defendants, co-conspirators and prospective witnesses in the captioned case. We are also in receipt of considerable other information furnished by you relating to the Apalachin Meeting and this case - all of which has been of material assistance in the preparation of this case for trial.

Of additional use would be any over-all report or reports compiled by the Bureau concerning the Apalachin Meeting and surrounding circumstances.

It is, therefore, requested that if you have any such additional information it be forwarded to us for use in preparing for trial in the captioned case.

REC-40

It looks to me as if Criminal Div is asking us to make a summary which it should do. As long as we have sent all reports on the situation that should suffice.
