has been made in the Courts concerning RANDACCIO's appeal. This source stated that no change will take place until such time as RANDACCIO's pending appeal is denied, if this be the case, in order that no power struggle will result among members of the "MAGADDINO Family," should the results of his appeal prove successful.

This source reported that SALVATORE J. PIERI, subject of Bureau file 92-6573, Buffalo file 92-389, is attempting to curry favor with former RANDACCIO associates in the gambling field, particularly in bookmaking, without success.

It is to be noted that this source has previously reported that PIERI is not a member of the "MAGADDINO Family" but is alleged to be connected with the "JOE COLOMBO Family" of New York City.

BU 305-C-TE has also reported that no change has taken place nor any contemplated pending the adjudication of RANDACCIO's appeal on his recent conviction. Similarly, this source reported that no replacement for RANDACCIO will take place in order to avoid any power struggle between the members of the "MAGADDINO Family" until such time as the results of RANDACCIO's appeal is known.

Local, State, and Federal intelligence agencies contacted in connection with this matter have in substance furnished the same information as furnished by the above sources.

As the Bureau is aware, VICTOR RANDACCIO, the brother of FRED RANDACCIO, is the Secretary-Treasurer of Local 210, International Hod Carriers and Common Laborers Union of America, Buffalo, New York, Bureau file 92-5354, Buffalo file 92-246. It would be logical to assume that in the event any change or any replacement of FRED RANDACCIO is made by the "MAGADDINO Family" that the first indication will be the removal of VICTOR RANDACCIO from his position as Secretary-Treasurer of Local 210. In this connection, close contact is being maintained with all sources of this office to determine any contemplated changes in Local 210 replacing VICTOR RANDACCIO, which would be an indication that the "MAGADDINO Family" contemplates the removal of FRED RANDACCIO from a position of authority in the "MAGADDINO Family."
