On July 9, 1964 confidential source T-1 revealed that the above subject resided at the Grand Hotel, 2 rue Scribe, Paris 9, from May 6-12, 1964. Source advised that since that date he has no longer been present in the Paris, France area. Source added that subject is unknown to the records of the various services of the Prefecture of Police in Paris. During his brief stay in Paris he did not come to the attention of the French authorities. (S)

On July 20, 1964 confidential source T-2 revealed that subject arrived in Madrid, Spain, on May 12, 1964 at Barajas Airport (Madrid). He took up residence at the Hotel Plaza, Madrid, where he remained until May 22 at which time he departed from the hotel. His destination was unknown but it was believed that he had left Spain at that time. Source advised that subject did not come to security notice during his stay in Spain. Spanish records reflected that he was the bearer of U. S. passport #92577 issued to him in Washington, D. C. on June 25, 1963. He arrived in Spain under the auspices of the American Express Company Travel Agency. (S)

Also on July 20, 1964 confidential source T-3 revealed substantially the same information supplied by confidential source T-2. Instant source added, however, that Spanish records reflected that subject was born August 15, 1923 in the United States and that his permanent place of residence was listed by him as New Orleans, Louisiana.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
