Dear Mr. Hoover:

Re: Apalachin Convictions
January, 1960.

Shortly after the Apalachin convention in 1957, we received from you and from the New York City Police, fingerprints and criminal records of criminals who were suspected of being present at this gathering. Since that date, we have not received any further details as to convictions etc.

2. In view of the above, we would appreciate receiving up-to-date criminal records covering the following persons who have actually been convicted.
