ADMINISTRATIVE

INVESTIGATION IN THE PITTSBURGH DIVISION

Contact with various sources and informants during the period of January 3, 1968 to February 20, 1968, resulted in the information that they either did not know subject or did not know what connection he has with the MANNARINO group in New Kensington, Pennsylvania. None knew whether or not he is a member of La Cosa Nostra.

The investigative period reflects investigation conducted by the New York Division not available at time referenced Miami report was prepared.

An information copy of instant report is being furnished Pittsburgh because of subject's close association with GABRIEL MANNARINO and his periodic yearly visits to New Kensington, Pennsylvania.
