RE: LA COSA NOSTRA

Re Los Angeles teletype 9/15/67.

As noted in referenced teletype, LCN "Capo" ANGELO POLIZZI returned to Los Angeles and contacted LA 4448-C-TE on night of 9/13/67.

On night of 9/17/67, LCN "member" CHARLES BATTAGLIA of the JOE BONANNO "Brugad" was in Los Angeles and BATTAGLIA discussed with LA 4448-C-TE BATTAGLIA's desire to transfer his LCN membership back to the Los Angeles LCN "Brugad." At BATTAGLIA's request, informant contacted Los Angeles "Capo" ANGELO POLIZZI and arranged a "meet" between BATTAGLIA and POLIZZI in order that BATTAGLIA could discuss this matter with POLIZZI. The meet between BATTAGLIA and POLIZZI occurred on the night of 9/17/67.

Since that occasion informant has been unable to contact POLIZZI. Since then informant has been in virtually daily contact with LCN "members" JOSEPH GIAMMONA, DOMINIC "MIMI" TRIPOLI and ANTHONY MANGIONE, all "members" of POLIZZI's LCN "Regime." None of these individuals knew of

POLIZZI's whereabouts and advised informant that POLIZZI had not yet contacted them relative to the new Los Angeles LCN "Boss."

On 9/30/67, informant advised that POLIZZI had telephonically contacted him the night of 9/29/67. POLIZZI stated that he had suffered a stroke and had been hospitalized for about the past 10 days. Informant met POLIZZI in POLIZZI's room at Mt. Sinai Hospital, Los Angeles, California on the night of 9/29/67. POLIZZI stated that he is recovering from this stroke and expects to be discharged from the hospital in several days.

At this time, POLIZZI asked informant if informant had made his choice relative to the new Los Angeles LCN "Boss." Informant stated that his preference would be NICK LICATA, but that he would support POLIZZI and would vote for the individual who was the choice of POLIZZI.

POLIZZI stated that his choice would be LICATA as POLIZZI felt that this was no time for any change in the Los Angeles LCN leadership. POLIZZI indicated that continued pressure from law enforcement would make it difficult to meet and to reorganize at the present time.

POLIZZI stated that to date there had been no opposition to LICATA. POLIZZI stated that except for informant he had not had a chance as yet to poll other "members" of his "Regime", but felt that there would be general agreement to LICATA's selection.

POLIZZI requested informant to contact DOMINIC "MIMI" TRIPOLI, JOSEPH GIAMMONA and ANTHONY MANGIONE and advise them of his illness and that he would be in contact with them when he was able.

On 10/4/67, informant advised that POLIZZI had been discharged from the hospital on 10/2/67, and was presently recuperating at home. POLIZZI advised informant on that date that his doctor wanted him to recuperate at home and restrict his activities for the next four to eight weeks.

Informant advised on 10/4/67, that he had contacted
