ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

Two information copies of this report are being sent Newark Division because of the substantial block of LCN members of the Philadelphia Family who reside and conduct activity within the Newark Division territory.

PH 672-C-TE, a member of the Philadelphia Family of LCN continues to be in daily contact with the Philadelphia Office of the FBI. This source, because of his unique position, is available to provide data relative to LCN membership and certain facts concerning LCN activity in the Philadelphia area.

PH 599-C-TE, a member of the Philadelphia Family of LCN, continues to furnish information relative to LCN on a limited basis.

PH 521-C-TE, who is not a member of LCN but is a son of an LCN member, continues to furnish information related to LCN membership in the Upstate Pennsylvania Anthracite area.

PH 872-C-TE, who is not a member of LCN, is also the son of an LCN member in the Upstate Pennsylvania Anthracite area. He has furnished considerable information of high quality relative to illegal activity and LCN membership in the Upstate Pennsylvania area.

In addition to the above top echelon criminal informants, Philadelphia has the following informants under development who are members of the Philadelphia Family of LCN:

PH 785-PC

PH 853-PC

By teletype dated 7/11/68, the Philadelphia Division requested Bureau authority under Section 2518 of the Omnibus Crime Bill relating to application for authority to intercept wire or oral communications.
