Re Dallas letter 6-5-62.

No contact should be made by Houston with German Consulate that city [unless through previously established reliable sources of information.] (S)

Upon completion of investigation by Dallas and identification of subject by that office, Dallas should submit recommendation for contact with [German Consulate] at Houston if same continues to be justified. No contact with [German diplomatic officials] should be made without prior Bureau authority. (S) (X) (u)

Houston discontinue investigation and close case.

NOTE:

Dallas received nonspecific allegations regarding subject indicating possibility he may be in this country as a German alien. Details of allegations indicate subject may be a confidence man, homosexual, and/or mentally unstable. Details obtained to date do not justify contact of [foreign diplomatic officials] to determine subject's alleged German nationality. (X) (u)
