Source advised that the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Relations advised the Czechoslovak Embassy, Washington, D.C. (S) that a tourist visa had been authorized for JOHN GERASSI and could be picked up at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. (S)

[SF T-48, 5/15/67] (S) u

Source advised on June 21, 1967, that the passenger manifest of Cuban Aviation Company, Flight Number 465, from Mexico to Havana, Cuba, on June 19, 1967, listed JOHN GERASSI, bearer of Passport Number H 566195, and a Cuban Courtesy Visa, as a passenger. (S) (u)

[SF T-49, 6/21/67] (S) u

A source made available information that the passenger manifest of Cuban Aviation Company Flight 464, from Havana, Cuba, to Mexico, DF, Mexico, on August 14, 1967, shows passenger #47 to be JOHN GERASSI, bearing US Passport H566195. He carried three pieces of luggage weighing 57 kilograms (125.4 pounds) and was in immediate transit to New York City. (S) (u)

[SF T-49, 8/17/67] (S) u

Daily Bulletin 2703, issued August 14, 1967, by the Mexico City bureau of Prensa Latina, official Cuban Government news agency, carried an article in Spanish entitled, "'Ramparts' announces sensational book about actions of the CIA in Chile, Mexico, Peru, and other countries." A translation follows:

HAVANA, Cuba, 13 of August (PRENSA LATINA). The publication of a book about the activities of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), especially as it refers to its infiltrations into Latin America, was announced here by the North American journalist, John Gerassi, of the magazine "Ramparts," which is edited in the United States.

GERASSI gave the information in an interview granted to reporters of "El Mundo," a morning paper of this capital, who sought his opinion about the presentation of the CIA agents captured in Cuba when they tried to infiltrate themselves through the north coast of Pinar del Rio.

"I do not doubt the truth of the proofs offered by Cuba," said Gerassi. "The works of infiltration of the CIA
