Davidson, who is registered as an agent of several foreign principals, has advised Inspector R. T. Nischwitz that he has been approached to represent a Dominican Republic political party being formed and would be willing to take the assignment if it would be of any benefit to the Bureau.

Davidson in the past has described himself as a "five percenter, out to make a fast buck," and our files indicate he is a rather unsavory person. He frequently volunteers information to the Bureau, particularly when it will serve his own purposes.

Inspector Nischwitz advised today (5/26/69) that Davidson contacted him yesterday to report that Luis Dominguez, a former Dominican Air Force officer who is now married to Angelita Trujillo, daughter of the late Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo, and one Frank Evora, Dominican newsman, plan to form a new political party with Ramfis Trujillo, Rafael Trujillo's son, as its head. The party will be registered in New York and will endeavor to bring about the election of Ramfis as President of the Dominican Republic in 1974. Meanwhile, it will passively support Joaquin Balaguer for re-election to the Presidency in 1970. Davidson said Dominguez and Evora asked him to represent them in the U. S. He told them he wanted to think about this. Davidson said he is a good friend of Balaguer's and is not too interested in taking the job but would do so if the Bureau wanted him to. Inspector Nischwitz advised Davidson that in the event the Bureau desired to pursue the matter we would have him contacted.

It is not felt it would serve the Bureau's best interests to ask Davidson to take such a job. We have Dominican sources that are in position to keep us informed of developments regarding the formation of any new political party such as the one described above.
