NOTE CONTINUED:

Dominican Republic as guest of Dominican Government. MM 781-S, a former Dominican Consulate employee at Miami, advised subject not agent of Dominican Government but official liaison man between Miami Police Department and Consulate. He received money only for guard duty performed while off duty and approved by Miami Police Department. Subject has denied being Dominican intelligence agent or receiving money from Dominican Republic; however, he admitted taking trip to Dominican Republic at Dominican expense. Logical sources contacted and unable to furnish additional pertinent information.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MM 105-5451

This Lieutenant changed the Dominican money into U.S. money, put it in a sealed envelope, sent it to the airport to be sent to the Dominican Consul in Miami. This envelope, according to RODRIGUEZ, also included $150. for the Consul in Miami for incidentals. (X)(u)

It would appear from the above that RODRIGUEZ can state only that the name ZAPP appeared on one of the cards maintained in the SIM office among cards pertaining to Dominican "informers." He can state that he prepared money by giving the amount to be sent in Dominican cash to a First Lieutenant, whose name he could not recall. It was this Lieutenant who supposedly placed the money in a sealed envelope, sent it to the airport, after which it was taken to Miami, and from there allegedly delivered to the Dominican Consul. (X)(u)

AGUSTO FERRANDO, former Dominican Consul in Miami, was interviewed and denied that he had been in any way involved in the payment of money to individuals as agents or informers in the Miami area.

MM 781-PSI, who was for 11 years employed in a responsible position in the Dominican Consulate in Miami, has been contacted and has stated that SAPP was not an agent of the Dominican government, and did not receive any money through the Dominican Consulate in Miami.

Based on the above, it is the opinion of the Miami Office that no further investigation is warranted.

With regard to presentation to the Department, the Miami Office feels that sufficient investigation

Rerep of SA THOMAS H. ERRION dated 5/9/62, at Miami; Bulet dated 11/16/62, bearing title, "UNKNOWN
SUBJECT; "Zapp," Sergeant, Miami Police Department, RA - DOMINICAN REPUBLIC; IS - DOMINICAN REPUBLIC."

ReBulet bears title as set forth above, and contains information that ANGEL SALVADOR RODRIGUEZ BILLETA, self-stated Executive Officer of the Dominican Military Intelligence Service (SIM), alleged that ZAPP received approximately $200.00 a month from SIM. Info from state Dept is

"ZAPP" is subject of instant file, CHARLES HOWARD SAPP, Sergeant of the Miami Police Department.
Investigation concerning allegation that SAPP received $200.00 a month as an agent of the Dominican SIM has been conducted and is reflected in Bufile 105-107621.

On November 19, 1962, while contacting MM 781-PSI, the matter of the receipt of money by Dominican agents in the Miami area through the Dominican Consulate was mentioned, and PSI stated that in all probability, SAPP is not even aware that his name appeared on the payroll of the Dominican Government, because he never received any money through the consulate. According to the informant, some person in the Dominican Republic, or somewhere in the Dominican service, quite probably received this money. Informant is acquainted with SAPP, and stated that the only money SAPP ever received was money paid to him for his work of guard duty at the Dominican Consulate in Miami, and this work was approved by the Miami Police Department, and performed by SAPP in his off-duty hours.
