RE: ANTONIO PEREZ Y PEREZ, also known as Antonio Mariano Perez

Reference is made to our memorandum dated April 14, 1961, entitled "Manuel Enrique Pereira."

On April 20, 1961, Mrs. Harlene Rae Worrow, 1490 Northwest 39th Street, Miami, Florida, advised that she has known Antonio Perez, who is headwaiter on the SS "Florida," since January, 1961. She stated that Perez and his friend Manuel Pereira are definitely pro-Castro and have continually expressed sympathy for the Cuban Government and dislike for the attitude of the United States toward Cuba. She advised that on one occasion Perez and she went to a restaurant in Nassau, Bahamas, where they met a Cuban who taught physical education in a public school in Nassau. According to Mrs. Worrow, this teacher was very much pro-Castro.

The above is furnished for your information.

NOTE: Data received by Miami indicates that subject and Pereira, who are members of the crew of the SS "Florida," are very much pro-Castro. Reportedly, the above ship makes two weekly trips to Nassau where subject and Pereira attend pro-Castro meetings. Referenced memorandum requested [STOTT] to contact his sources in Nassau for data regarding subject and Pereira. It appears that pro-Castro feelings of the physical education teacher mentioned above would be of interest to authorities in Nassau. Teacher not further identified by Worrow.
