It is noted that MARINA OSWALD identified the bracelet as a gift to her from her husband; that she stated that the bracelet was given to her immediately after OSWALD had returned from New Orleans early in October, 1963; and that OSWALD had purchased a similar bracket for himself with his name on it prior to the time they moved from Dallas to New Orleans in the spring of 1963.

She stated that OSWALD wanted her to have a bracelet like his; that he had not stated where he bought the bracelet; and that she did not know he had gone to Mexico.

The lead for the Dallas office is set forth because the above information presents the possibility that if OSWALD bought a bracelet with his name on it prior to leaving Dallas for New Orleans and since he wanted a similar one with his wife's name on it, he purchased the second bracelet where he purchased the first, probably in Dallas, Texas.
