Attached is one copy each of four obscene exhibits copied from Bufile 161-2399-5 regarding Sarah Schoenkopf, Peace Corps applicant.

During the applicant investigation concerning Schoenkopf, it was determined that she had had intimate relations with Mark Lane. Further inquiry determined the Office of the District Attorney, Queens County, New York, had conducted an investigation of Lane in 1962 for alleged sodomy. The results of the investigation were made available to the FBI. They included signed statements by Phyllis Denise Golden and Elizabeth Lee Stephenson, a list of handprinted instructions and an obscene photograph of Mark Lane all pertaining to alleged perverted sexual acts of sadistic and masochistic nature performed by the girls on the person of Mark Lane.

Because of the pertinency of these exhibits to captioned investigation, copies of these exhibits have been prepared and are properly sealed and labeled "Obscene."
