A company formed for the purpose of making a motion picture tentatively entitled Rush to Judgment.

1. Cost of Production
£20,000 (approximately $56,000).
2. Division of Profits
50% to Investors, 50% to Production/Creative staff including Producer, Director, Writers.

3. Nature of Film
A feature length film which will consist of stock footage, existing stills, reconstructions and re-enactments as well as live footage to be shot in Dallas, Washington and New York. The live footage will consist mainly of interviews with witnesses to the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas, as well as interviews with members and staff of the Warren Commission. Current Events Documentary Films Limited has already in its possession tapes and stills never before published in any media. These are of a highly controversial and sensational nature. An English film crew will be sent to the United States in mid-December to film the interviews. Projected completion date for the picture is March 1966.

The nature of the film will be didactic and argumentative in that it will compare the Warren Commission's own evidence contained in its published twenty six volumes of testimony and exhibits with the Warren Commission's conclusions contained in the one volume Warren Commission Report. The film will offer no conclusions and will indulge in no speculation. It will, however, fill the judicial void left by the murder of Oswald and the subsequent secret proceedings of the Warren Commission. The film will constitute the only trial afforded to Lee Harvey Oswald with each viewer serving as a juror.
