T-1, a confidential source abroad, advised that Lane arrived in Dublin, Ireland, on March 6, 1967, then visited London and on March 10, 1967, proceeded to Copenhagen from London Airport. Lane has since returned to the United States and is reliably reported to have spent a number of days at the end of March with Jim Garrison, District Attorney in New Orleans, Louisiana. (S)

The same reliable source reported that Garrison considers that the American authorities will do everything possible to prevent his bringing the killers of the late President Kennedy to justice, that powerful forces were responsible for the assassination, and that anti-Castro Cubans played a part in it.
