of President Kennedy. More recently, he has associated with Huey Newton, leader of the extremist Black Panther Party, and various leaders of New Left including actress Jane Fonda, and , has become a leading antiwar activist. [He was in Paris in 3/71 where he made number of contacts with Vietnamese, revolutionary organizations and individuals of far left including a member of Fourth International European Trotskyist organization and leader of the Communist League to which organization Lane made a financial contribution.
Lane; who lives in common-law marriage with Carolyn J. Mugar daughter of wealthy Bostonian, is in constant travel status in connection with antiwar activism and has been involved in encouragement of military desertion abroad. Lane was most recently with Mugar in vicinity of Mountain Home Air Force Base (MHAFB) near Boise, Idaho, where he attempted to distribute an antimilitary underground newspaper and is setting up a coffeehouse. The MHAFB Wing Commander refused Lane permission to distribute newspaper, the "Helping Hand," because it advocated resistance to authority and therefore endangered discipline, loyalty and morale. Information also received that Lane hopes to convince servicemen at MHAFB to sabotage their work.
