Louis J. Nicoletti, Investigator, Second US Army Industrial Security Field Office, Philadelphia, Pa., Lieutenant Colonel, US Air Force Reserve, advised that he attended a Christmas party at the Willow Grove Naval Air Station on 12/15/62, at which time he became socially acquainted with a Mr. W.T. Caley (157-2828) of the Caley Research Foundation Wayne, Pa. Nicoletti stated Caley spoke of a "counter-insurgency" training program which had as its objective to hold down the American public. Caley said he had literature regarding "counter-insurgency" and this "counter-insurgency" was related to Major General Edwin Walker of the US Army in Texas. Caley did not specify the relationship between Walker and "counter-insurgency." Caley said he would make some of this literature available to Nicoletti, but Nicoletti, after departing the club, never heard any more from Caley.

On 12/16/63 NO 1223-C (RAC) advised that Ned Touchstone, Editor of "The Councilor," publication of the Citizens Council of Louisiana, Inc., who resided Bossier City, La., advised he had recently visited General Edwin Walker in Dallas, Texas, and that Walker had shown him the bullet hole in his home where the sniper fired at him a number of months ago.

NO 1223-C (RAC) advised that Touchstone, a member of the Original Knights of the KKK, claimed the Klan had documented proof that President Lyndon Johnson was formerly a member of the Klan in Texas during his early political career. Touchstone said this Klan group was organized in Fort Worth, Texas, and he was not sure if this was the name "Hykers" or whether it was the initial "H.Y.K.E.R.S." Source was of the opinion Touchstone obtained this information from General Walker, since he talked about it at the time he talked about visiting Walker.
