SUBJECT: MEYER LANSKY aka
AR

The following is a summary of the information furnished by NY 3845-C* and NY 3851-C* who were in a position to furnish information concerning MEYER LANSKY's activities in NYC during the periods 12/18-20/62 and 12/21-23/62 respectively:

12/18/62

Informant furnished information that subject and his wife, TEDDY LANSKY, attended a Broadway play on that date. At about 11:55 that evening, they returned to the Drake Hotel, NYC, where they were staying, accompanied by an unidentified couple who immediately departed.

12/19/62

Informant advised that subject went out of the Drake Hotel by himself early in the morning.

Subject's wife, TEDDY LANSKY, talked to a "Claire" (CLAIRE NOSSITER) and discussed being at the theater the previous evening. TEDDY indicated they were going to see the CAESAR show the following evening. She also remarked that on the previous evening, she and the subject went to the Stage Delicatessen.

Informant advised that TEDDY discussed her marriage with the subject and the following conversation took place:

TEDDY: "It has really dissolved a great deal, and all because of that little (obscene) (SANDRY LANSKY). I can see the writing on the wall. She's definitely mental. She's incoherent. She makes no sense at all. She giggles which is a sign of insanity. She's definitely gone and her child is gone. I've known she has been insane for a long time. A psychiatrist won't help her. She's a hopeless case. She should be put away. I keep telling Meyer this, but he won't listen to me".

TEDDY then requested CLAIRE to make reservations for four at Sardi's the following evening.

TEDDY indicated that on Sunday (12/23/62) she was going out on the Island to stay with her grandchildren.

It should be noted that NY 3386-C-TE advised that on 12/24/62 MEYER LANSKY directed his daughter, SANDRA LANSKY, to meet him at the office of the psychiatrist who treated LANSKY's first wife. Informant stated that when SANDRA LANSKY arrived at the psychiatrist's office, MEYER LANSKY was with the psychiatrist. According to the informant, the psychiatrist, without any examination, advised SANDRA LANSKY that she was mentally disturbed and that if she did not do as he directed, he would have her confined to a mental institution. Informant stated that the psychiatrist directed SANDRA LANSKY to report to him once a week and ^{STAYED} that she was not to get married for the next two years. Informant stated that according to SANDRA LANSKY, her father "bought" the psychiatrist in an attempt to control her activities. Informant also advised that SANDRA LANSKY has no intention of following her father's request and that this has made her hate her father.

Informant advised that TEDDY LANSKY received a telephone call from SANDRA LANSKY and the conversation was friendly and casual. TEDDY remarked that MEYER was out with "Smiley". Informant also advised that TEDDY invited SANDRA LANSKY to meet her for lunch and that SANDRA LANSKY did have lunch with TEDDY that date.

(NY 3386-C-IE has advised in the past that TEDDY LANSKY has referred to HYMIE SIEGEL as "Smiley".) Informant (NY 3845-C*) advised that later in the afternoon, MEYER and TEDDY LANSKY returned to their room at the Drake Hotel and that TEDDY received an incoming call from "Be Be". The conversation was unintelligible. Immediately after TEDDY hung up, MEYER LANSKY apparently said something to TEDDY about her conversation over the phone, at which time TEDDY shouted in a hysterical voice "I'm not going to find out or forget about it, just forget about it. I'm not going to put myself in any prison for you". MEYER's reply was unintelligible. TEDDY stated "it would be easier to go into that kind of a prison than to go into one mentally. A person is human sometimes". Again MEYER's remark was unintelligible. TEDDY screamed at MEYER, "you're driving me nuts. Stop bothering me. You're getting old" and MEYER replied "you're some kind of a nut". TEDDY said "you're a bigger nut".

Informant advised that MEYER remarked that he saw "Ruby" that afternoon.

Informant advised that CLAIRE (NOSSITER) arrived with an unidentified male (believed to be MOE POLANSKY) and they all departed for a Broadway show.
