The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

No investigation should be conducted on the information set forth herein if there is a possibility of identifying the source.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE:

The following information was furnished by BS 837-C* on the dates indicated;

On 8/12/63 the informant advised that SULLY IACONI contacted RAYMOND PATRIARCA and PATRIARCA complained about the operations of the Indian Meadow Country Club, Westboro, Mass. In connection with this contact, PATRIARCA was critical of the way the club was being operated. He said, however, that they should not make any changes at this time until they see what the Government does in regard to the investigation relative to the club obtaining a small business loan. PATRIARCA told IACONI that he heard that BRUNO DI CICCIO told Internal Revenue that he paid a bribe. IACONI said that this was not so and DI CICCIO only told authorities that he borrowed $5,000 out of the club money as he was in need of some funds.

PATRIARCA made the comment that ANTHONY SANFRATELLO, CARLO MASTROTOTARO and others should not even be in the club because the general public thinks that it is all gangsters if they see them in there.

The informant advised that PATRIARCA said that he plans to institute a libel suit against the "Saturday Evening Post" and Boston newspapers in connection with ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that it is his understanding that when a "man" had some difficulty, he should go to his "caporegima." PATRIARCA agreed and said when the "caporegima" disagrees with the man, the man can then go to the "Consuleri." The "Consuleri" can only give advice, but cannot make a decision. The "Consuleri" can then sit down with the ~~man~~ boss and they can iron the matter out or bring the "man" in.

It was noted in this conversation that ANGIULO said that the reason that he and PETER LIMONE are here with RAYMOND is because "we belong to you."

ANGIULO indicated to PATRIARCA that this came up about JOE BURNS going out of the area without advising RAYMOND PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that JOE BURNS should have told these people who made the comment about him leaving the area without advising RAYMOND, "I'm responsible to the man only, RAY." He could further tell them that if he, BURNS, was doing anything wrong, RAYMOND would certainly have called him in.

At the conclusion of the contact, ANGIULO was told by PATRIARCA to tell JOE BURNS and RALPH CHONG that he wants to meet with them down at his place and he, PATRIARCA, intends to put RALPH CHONG in his place here and now.

On 8/14/63 the informant advised that THEODORE FUCILLO and BERNARD EZHAYA contacted RAYMOND PATRIARCA at Atwells Ave., Providence, R. I.

EZHAYA, the former PCI of the Detroit and Boston Offices, is associated with FUCILLO in the operation of the Eastern Supply Company, Commercial Wharf, Boston, Mass. FUCILLO told PATRIARCA that FRANK CUCCHIARA was in the Deaconess Hospital (Boston) with gangrene of the toe but he is going to be okay.

EZHAYA and FUCILLO told PATRIARCA that they had been talking to representatives of various unions in order to raise some funds. EZHAYA mentioned that he had talked to the boiler makers and he had talked to JIMMY MAKIS, a lawyer who is associated with the Teamsters Union.
