POLISH SUMMARY

(9:15am WF [456] S [S] to be with a Welfare Agency). JJ asks to speak with ne a Mrs. Bixler(ph) who is not available. JJ says she spoke with Bixler re a translation matter. Unid. Woman is familiar with this and explains that there is a man in Fairfax( city or county not specified) who is ill and needs financial assistance;whom they wish to get on the welfare rolls as quickly as possible, but they cannot communicate with him. JJ says that she will do the translating for them and believes it will be alright for her to come to Fairfax.
OK, Unid. asks that JJ call a Mrs. Baylor(sp) at telephone CR 35111 who will have all necessary info. OK, JJ will do.
vhw

9:50 AM
WF [456] S [S] JOZEF SOLTYSIEWICZ to a MR. DAVIS (ph), Direct dial, LD, ne place not mentioned. (NYC ???). JS referred to DAVIS'S letter and asked for more information. JS said that Polish radio and TV would like more information as to how many stations here use the tapes, etc. DAVIS said he believes he reported in the letter he wrote that he would furnish figures on this later, when he has established this information. He said he just moved to a new place, and will send the information within the next two weeks.
JS asked what the opinion is of US radio and TV, as well as DAVIS'S own opinion regarding the tapes. DAVIS said he can tell JS that they are being received quite well. DAVIS said that Polish radio sent a Christmas tape, but it was sent too late to distribute, except he sent the tape directly to stations in Washington, Boston, New York and Philadelphia where he is personally acquainted. DAVIS said that radio station WAMU, the American University Station in WDC has the tape. DAVIS said SOLTYSIEWICZ can call MR. GEORGE GEESEY (sp) the General Manager of WAMU to find out when the tape will be presented in WDC. DAVIS said he does not know the Polish announcer who does this tape, as he does many others, but he sounds English, and is extremely good. JS asked if the number of stations is the same. DAVIS said they now have over 300 stations, but all these stations do not take the tapes and he does not know how many use the tapes. JS requested statistics as DAVIS acquires same. OK. cmf

POLISH SUMMARY

10:30am Unid. Male from the Italian Embassy calls to Lee Meredith WF [456] S (S) to advise that one of the Poles, who owns a white Volks-nc wagon has parked same at front of their Embassy and has left the lights on. LM says thanks much and she will have it checked out. vhw

10:44 AM R. FRACKIEWICZ to M. FRACKIEWICZ advising that he will WF [456] S (S) not come home for lunch. He asked what time she will nc have dinner. MF said between 5 and 5:30 PM. OK.
(Polish) cmf

10:49 AM JANINA WOJCIK to F. KRAWCZYK, asking if release for WF [456] S (S) 7 boxes, containing pictures or some such items, has been nc received from USDS. FK said no, but he expects it about Friday. OK. (Polish) cmf

10:45am J. KALINOWSKI to Telephone Co. asked about charges WF [953] S (S) connected with the moving from one address to another. nc He said he was calling for LEOKADIA ROGOZIN SKA who has moved from one apartment to another (apparently in the same building). (Exism) JJP

10:53am Ambassador Wolniak calls from Ottawa to E. Drozniak.
WF [456] S (S) Greetings etc and inquiries as to how things are. All 19-36 is in order. WOLNIAK and Drozniak then discuss the forthcoming trip of Wolniak to Florida, he indicating it will be a 1600 mile trip, that he has joined the AAA, they have laid out the route for him etc. Wolniak indicates that he had spoke with Eugenek (Eugeniusz WYZNER in NYC) and that he had spoke with the USDS about the trip and it was approved, they are allowing him to travel. DROZNIAK invites him to come to his home for lunch, but Wolniak says it will depend on how close they are to the area. Otherwise on the return trip he will do so, indicating that he would contact Drozniak then, possibly either Friday or Saturday the 3rd or 4th of January. They further discuss this, DROZNIAK telling him to call him collect etc, and giving him advice to take the AAA Book and to write down Drozniaks numbers (i.e. telephone). Thereafter WOLNIAK makes a brief reference to having heard his boss' (i.e., Drozniaks Boss) speech.
ED responds on this with a yes, yes (and meaning of the remark not known). Conversation is terminated with reference to a safe journey and ED asking when he leaves. ~~WOLNIAK~~ Wolniak leaves on Saturday morning. (Polish) vhw

[S] MARTIN POPPER to ADAM BONARSKI. MP thanked AB for the good time yesterday. AB said it was his pleasure. MP said he is glad to say he believes he can & work out ~~something~~ something on that matter which AB suggested yesterday. AB asked that MP write him a letter on this. MP said he called to get an idea what AB wants in the letter, asking if AB wants him to say anything about the geographical area. MP said that he doesn't mean this in the sense of any kind of monopoly (Too cryptic to make sense). AB advised MP that he can do what he thinks proper. OK. MP said he wants AB'S advise. ~~His~~ His firm is handling an estate in Rockford, Illinois. It is a large estate in which they represent most of the heirs, most of whom happen to be soviet citizens, but there is one share that goes to a group of 7 Polish citizens. The amount that goes to the Poles amounts to over $60,000. MP said no one at the Polish Consulate in Chicago knows about this case, so wonders if he should write a letter to AB working toward a power of attorney, and have AB talk to the Consul in Chicago, or if he should write direct to Chicago. AB advised him to write to A. KITA in Chicago, introduce himself to KITA, and tell KITA that he is writing on AB's recommendation. OK. AB asked that a copy of the letter to KITA be sent to him, and he will then call KITA. OK. Thanks. cmf
