DE 137-2879

Informant advised that he was in company with JOE VALENTI the previous weekend. He said that VALENTI was real upset and was telling him that somebody "high up" in the syndicate was "doing a lot of talking" to the FBI. Informant said that VALENTI told him of his interview the previous Friday, 3/1/63, by the FBI. He said that VALENTI told him that the FBI had his car "bugged," apparently because "they knew all about him." Informant stated that VALENTI told him that the FBI knew about his going to the Palm Furniture Co. and of his contacts with SAMMY GIORDANO. Informant said that actually VALENTI was never "tight" with SAMMY G. and, in fact, VALENTI hates GIORDANO. He added that VALENTI has been close to him for years, however, he cannot be sure if VALENTI knows JOHNNY AYOTTE or not.

Informant advised that VALENTI told him that the FBI showed him a $50.00 check from Palm Furniture Co. which was endorsed by "JOE VARGA" but which had VALENTI's true address and telephone number of 12779 Evanston, LA 7-6173 and also VALENTI's previous Michigan auto license number GG 4261. Informant stated that VALENTI admitted to him that he had actually endorsed this check as "JOE VARGA" and that "JOE VARGA" was the alias given to him by SAMMY G. during the two week period during June, 1960, in which he (VALENTI) had worked as a salesman at Palm Furniture. Informant said that VALENTI told him that the check wasn't phony but that he had certainly made a mistake in putting down his own address, phone number and Informant added that VALENTI also told him car license number. SAMMY G. had used him as a "front" for two weeks and had paid him a salary of $100.00 a week. He stated that VALENTI seemed very relieved that he only worked at Palm Furniture two weeks and VALENTI commented that he was thankful that the one order he signed for at Palm Furniture under the name "JOE VARGA" was actually one of the orders which was paid for.

Informant advised that VALENTI commented that the Palm Furniture check he signed, using the name "JOE VARGA", was a check proffered to him by SAMMY GIORDANO one day while working in the store. VALENTI told him that it wasn't a salary check and he cashed it only because GIORDANO meeded some cash. Informant said that VALENTI told him that he knew the check was good so he gave GIORDANO the $50.00 cash. He advised that VALENTI complained to him that when he went to cash the Palm Furniture check at the Clark Gas Station the guy asked him for all kinds of identification and he confusedly gave the name "JOE VARGA" even though the check was made out to "cash" plus all his own identifying data. Informant said that VALENTI told him that he only went to work at Palm as he thought he could make some money but, as it turned out, he "didn't eat or drink", ie, make any money from the deal.

Informant advised that VALENTI told him that following his interview the previous Friday by the FBI he had contacted JOE "WHIP" TRIGLIA and gave "JOE WHIP" all the details of the interview. VALENTI told Informant that he asked TRIGLIA to get in touch with RUBINO right away and find out what RUBINO wants him (VALENTI) to do or say in the whole matter.

On 3/11/63, Informant advised that VALENTI told him that TRIGLIA had contacted him and gave him a message from MIKE RUBINO to the effect "Don't bother me. I've got troubles of my own". Informant commented that VALENTI is now real hot at He said that really RUBINO made a big mistake in RUBINO. answering VALENTI's request like this as VALENTI's testimony could help "bury RUBINO". Informant commented that he does not believe that VALENTI actually knows RUBINO. He said that certainly VALENTI has seen RUBINO a few times around town but that VALENTI, when he was associated with "the people" was employed in the numbers in the old Murphy House, which is now run by "FAT DOMINIC" CORRADO and TONY GIACALONE, and VALENTI wouldn't have come in contact with RUBINO, who represented another faction in the syndicate. He said that he knows that VALENTI knows SAMMY G. but that VALENTI displays nothing but contempt now for GIORDANO.

Informant advised that VALENTI has been ranting and raving about "the people" having no sense of loyalty or morals. Informant added that not only does VALENTI realize this now but he is still afraid of them. He offered that VALENTI is not afraid of say, MIKE RUBINO or TONY GIACALONE, as a person but because they represent a strong organization - the syndicate. Informant remarked that VALENTI had been employed_as a "pick-up man" and an office worker in the numbers for TONY GIACALONE but that VALENTI and GIACALONE got in "a big beef" one day and GIACALONE fired VALENTI. Informant said that VALENTI missed a "pick-up" one day at a particularly large "drop" and it caused a lot of confusion and the loss of "a day's business". Informant stated that VALENTI complained that he "made a tail" and thus wasn't able to make the "stop". He added that the two of them apparently got in a big hassle over it and the upshot was that VALENTI lost his job.
