The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

(last name unknown) was married to ANGIE GIORDANO, the sister of SAMMY. Informant added that PHIL, while married to ANGIE, was also playing NINA LUCIDO GIORDANO, who at that time was TONY GIORDANO's wife. Informant said that NINA LUCIDO GIORDANO is presently the court reporter for Judge ALVIN DAVENPORT in Records Court, Detroit. Informant said in those days the individual who ran the office of the Murphy House delivered the numbers and the tapes and also kept his own bankroll. He said that one day PHIL (last name unknown) "had himself robbed". Informant added that this is a fairly common occurrence in the numbers racket but that the "bosses" have seen it so often they can "smell it a mile". The Informant said that PHIL told ANTHONY GIACALONE that he was robbed by two Negroes. He said that it came out later that NINA LUCIDO GIORDANO, who was not only PHIL's sister-in-law but also his paramour, was aware that the robbery was a "phoney". He said that ANTHONY GIACALONE for a while believed PHIL's story and, in fact, wanted to get in touch with some colored individual who might be able to identify and locate the two Negroes who allegedly "heisted" PHIL. The Informant said that ANTHONY GIACALONE gave an individual named BILL COOK $200.00 cash in order to try and learn the identity of the two individuals who robbed PHIL. Informant said that BILL COOK gave him $100.00 of GIACALONE's money and stated that he did not intend to do anything for GIACALONE as it was very obvious to him that PHIL had told a phoney storey to him about the robbery. The Informant said that several weeks after that ANTHONY GIACALONE called PHIL in for a meet at the Grecian Gardens Restaurant where he was given a terrific beating by ANTHONY GIACALONE, PETE VITALE and JOE LA MONICA, also known as, Joe Seragusa. He said that after getting the beating PHIL left town and went to Chicago.

On July 11, 1964, DE T-2 advised that DOMINIC "SPARKY" CORRADO seemed to be out of any immediate trouble at the present time. He said that "SPARKY" had played golf on Friday with VITO GIACALONE and on Saturday ANTHONY GIACALONE requested EDWARD HOLLY to have "SPARKY" get in touch with him. Informant stated that "SPARKY" CORRADO, to all indications, has not been beaten up or molested in any way in the past 60 days.
