FROM : SA(A) LEON F. ANDREWS, JR.

SUBJECT: STEVE MAGADDINO, aka
AR

DATE: 10/9/64

Reference is made to information received from BU 280-C* on 9/4/64 that VINCENT A. SCRO and PETER A. MAGADDINO were planning to visit Toronto, Ontario, Canada, over the Labor Day 1964 weekend.

At 10:40 AM 9/4/64 CAL BEACOCK, RCMP, Toronto, was advised by SA JAMES P. MC MAHON that a confidential informant of the Buffalo Office had furnished information indicating that PETER A. MAGADDINO and VINCENT A. SCRO were then leaving the Buffalo-Niagara Falls, New York, area for Toronto and had initial plans to stay at the Royal York Hotel.

On 9/8/64 BU 280-C* advised that SCRO and MAGADDINO did not stay at the Royal York Hotel as originally planned. The informant advised that SCRO and PETER A. MAGADDINO stayed at the Seaway Towers Motor Hotel, 2000 Lake Shore Boulevard West, Toronto. This information was furnished to Constable BEACOCK, supra, on 9/8/64 at 4:25 PM.

On 9/16/64 Constable ROBERT STONE, RCMP, Toronto, advised that upon instructions from Constable BEACOCK he had checked the records of the Seaway Towers Motor Hotel and learned that Mrs. VINCENT A. SCRO and party of 8, with an address of 460 East Delavan Avenue, Buffalo, New York, had stayed at that hotel from 9/4-6/64. Constable STONE advised that this party reserved three double rooms at $66.00 per day.

The registration card indicated that a car bearing New York State registration 7E 8072 was one of those with the party. Investigation previously conducted disclosed this is a 1964 New York registration for VINCENT A. SCRO.

The reservation for the rooms in Toronto were made by a Mrs. MONTANA of the Travel House, 367 Niagara Street, Buffalo, New York.

Constable STONE advised there were no long distance telephone calls charged to the party nor is there any indication that the party had ever stayed there before.

On 9/25/64 records of American Airlines, Greater Buffalo International Airport, were examined by writer to determine if there had been any recent travel from Buffalo to New York City by members of the "Magaddino Family" during the week of 9/6-12/64. It is noted that a reservation for one seat was made for the Buffalo to New York trip on 9/8/64 for a Mrs. A. SCRO. According to the airlines records the reservation for this flight was made by telephone from Toronto and a woman identifying herself as Mrs. A. SCRO left Buffalo for Newark airport at 1:21 PM 9/8/64.
